Ice Cream Cones

Jenni will be scooping up ice cream on Thursday afternoon! Come on down and have a nice cool treat.

Music and Happy Hour to follow.

Beautiful Blooms

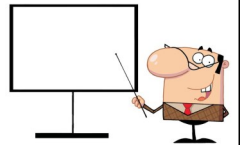

Our beautiful courtyard is in full bloom! The gardens and fish pond are looking absolutely beautiful right now and we hope that tenants will get outside and enjoy it while it is here!

Getting out in nature and the fresh air is very healthy and we encourage you to try to go out for a few minutes every day.

Group Games with Bob

Bob Duggan will be here on Tuesday to lead group games. Please join him the lounge area of the dining room.

Bus Tour

Jenni is interested in knowing how many people would like to go on a bus tour around town. If you are interested please put your name on the bulletin board this week so we can see how much interest there is.

Sunday Church Service

We regret to inform you that the Sunday Church Service is not going to be able to move forward at this time as we had hoped.

Volunteers Bob and Dave give their sincere apologies and hope they can offer this in the near future.
